VOLUME 51—NO. 17
OLDEST PAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1910.

WHOLE NO. 2010
ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1850

AS JOBBING CENTER.

Early in his career Hickman set out to be a very considerable jobbing and freight transfer point. The line of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, which runs in here, was originally built largely by the subscriptions of Hickman people and by their strong efforts to make the back country serve as a feeder and bring goods even from Nashville to the river here. But the Illinois Central cut across and proved to be an outlet instead of an inlet and destroyed much of the ancient business of the city. This is a condition which the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company will correct.

Hickman will be put on a very favorable basis of rates from New Orleans, Memphis and St. Louis. Jobbers will get manufactured goods from St. Louis at wholesale on a very low rate, and wholesale groceries, such as salmon, sugar coffee and other items from New Orleans on an equally low rate, and will be able to job them to all points on the N. C. & St. L. between Hickman and Hollow Rock, at much lower rates than the big cities north and south can reach these places.

With the new road to Iyersburg, an additional feeder is opened up. But such towns as Dresden, Martin, Union City, Fulton, McKenzie, Huntington, Paris, and the very rich country surrounding these towns will be made tributary to Hickman in a way in which it has never before reached.

It is not the intention of the Steamship Company to establish through rates and through bills of lading with the interior towns, but to put a rebilling agent on the dock and thus forward matter from Hickman dock into the interior by a combination of local rates. Thus none of these towns can secure any advantage over Hickman by through billing. The freight has to stop off here anyhow, and it will be as convenient for the retailers in these cities to buy their goods on local shipment from Hickman as to bother about the long haul for the same price.

Merchants in Hickman can greatly facilitate this business by coming forward promptly to support the new line and they will find that their courtesy will be repaid by the efforts of the new Company to help them out in their business.

SUNDAY WEDDING.

Geo. A. Weatherly and Miss Audrey Wiggins, two popular and well known young people of this city were quietly married Sunday morning at the residence of and by County Judge W. A. Naylor. The wedding came as quite a surprise to the friends of the contracting parties.

Mr. Weatherly is a son of Jno. R. Weatherly, the concrete man, and was reared in this city. He holds a good position—that of electrician—with the Hickman Ice & Coal Co., and is an industrious, hustling young man.

The bride is a daughter of Mar Wiggins, the family coming to this city from Dukesdam, Tenn., about four years ago. During this time Mrs. Weatherly has made many friends in Hickman, and is a charming little lady.

Here's our best wishes.

Mrs. R. T. Davis entertained Misses Jeanie and Annie Outten and R. H. Johnson and wife at 6 o'clock dinner last Wednesday evening.

The school census for the year 1907 showed 598 school children in the Hickman district. This year we have 712—a gain of 114. In 1907 Fulton had 672, this year 628. Cayce had 69, now they have 62; Madrid 123, now 103.

FOR SALE: Good 4-horse log wagon.—H. H. Mangold. 3t

NEGRO BEATS UP BOY.

Prather Wells, a well known young man of this city and a son of Mrs. J. O. Ryan, was beaten up in a brutal manner by a negro in the jail at Paducah, Friday. The account of it is given by the Paducah paper in its "town" column. The attempt of two trustees of the county prison to industriously perform the same duty at noon Thursday, resulted in Prather Wells, 20 years old, an undersized youth, being badly battered by Jim Howard, alias "Hyersburg," a negro modeled like Johnson, and weighing 180 pounds, who used a heavy stove lifter.

Wells was critically wounded and vomited blood from the terrible blows received on the breast and back when the giant negro swung on the frail white youth with the heavy iron bar.

Wells is serving six months as the result of irregularities with government money while acting as clerk in the Hickman post office. Jim Howard the negro, stole a coat and vest and was sentenced for six months. Both prisoners are nearing the end of their terms.

Wells has been a splendid trustee for several weeks, while Howard always serves under guard.

Not knowing that Wells was in the kitchen cutting meat for dinner, Turnkey Walter Carter, who was upstairs, sent Howard to the kitchen to serve as butcher. When the latter arrived, he found Wells busy with the task. Howard told Wells that the job belonged to him and when the white lad resented it, Howard struck him with his fist and seized the stove lifter, began swinging on Wells' head and body. Eliza Swenson, a trusty who is chief cook, fled upstairs and gave the alarm. Jailer Henry Houser ran to the kitchen and thrust his pistol against Howard's breast and backed him off the white boy, who lay on the blood smeared floor. A second later Turnkey Carter arrived and Howard was pushed into the corridor of the negro section of the jail.

Do you know that an editor or a reporter for a newspaper can in his rounds stop and ask a hundred persons "What is the news?" And ninety out of the hundred will reply, "Nothing special" and yet fifty out of that number know something that if not found in the next paper will astonish them greatly and disappoint them more, and perhaps makes them madder than hornets. Don't be afraid to let the newspaper man know it.

LYRIC SATURDAY NIGHT.

PAID $144.50 FINE.

Ex-Sheriff J. T. Seat, who went on a rampage in this city last Thursday morning while intoxicated, submitted his case in Judge Henley's court Saturday and was fined $144.50. Seat was charged with flourishing a pistol and shooting some at random. The gun-play included the forcing of it on F. S. Moore, at the point of a revolver, to hand over $45 which

Seat claimed was due him from Mr. Moore. Mr. Seat's little tableau came to an end when Policeman Ham by made a daring rush, over-powered and unarmed him. Mr. Moore made preparations to prosecute Seat for "holding him up," but withdrew the warrant. There's not a better fellow on earth than Jim when he is sober, and he assures a Courier man that we will never see him any other way again.

Pointer No. 2

¶ Latter day banking methods provide a certain encouragement to depositors.

¶ There never was a time in the history of banking when it could not be urged with good reason that a bank account secured the greatest safety for the protection of funds and arranged, at the same time, the most convenient method of paying out the same in the settlement of bills and accounts.

¶ This is pertinent.

¶ But now, through the influence of a distribution of its stock—by a neighborhood representation on its Board of Directors, and by a remuneration to that class of depositors who are persistent in its Savings Department—a bank may be an important factor toward the encouragement of thrift in the community, and put into circulation, at the same time, for the use of the accredited borrower, the funds that are now kept in secret hiding places or invested away from home.

¶ The Peoples Bank begs to announce the final completion of its plans, and to say also that it is indeed gratifying to mark the intense interest that has been manifested in its organization.

CURRENT COMMENT

Yes, Annie, ward-healers and little 2x4 politicians still refer to themselves as "statesmen." Selah.

Postmaster Stephens formulates the following rules for the benefit of his patrons and that you may know what you may expect: No letters given out until they have been received. If you don't get a letter or a paper on the day you expect it have the postmaster look through all the boxes and down the cellar also. It ought to be there somewhere and he likes to hunt for it just to please you. If your friend don't write, rave at the postmaster. He is to blame. If he tells you no, put on a grieved look and say there ought to be some. He is probably hiding your mail for the pleasure of having you call for it. Ask him to look again. If you are buying stamps make him lick them and put them on, that's his business.

We do not laugh enough. There is nothing more pleasant to the ear than the merry laugh of a happy, joyous person, and nothing drives away gloom and care like a good, hearty laugh. Laughter and good humor make a happy, pleasant home and a cheerful bright home is the greatest safeguard against the temptations for the young. Parents should guard against this and spare no pains to make home a cheerful spot.

Of course if you are contemplating going to school this fall you are thinking and planning for it now, and that is right. It is none too soon to begin to make arrangements and to cast about for a desirable place. We gladly refer you to Hickman College. No town in the State has a higher moral tone and fewer objectionable features. Our school offers unusual facilities for a proper culture of mind at a very moderate expense, and you are very cordially invited to investigate before deciding to go elsewhere.

One of the Courier's former friends says about as good way to study human nature as any is when you are driving on the public road. If a man is willing to observe the laws and the courtesies of the road, he will duly give his share of it when meeting another, and shows he is willing to do the gentlemanly thing about it. But when you meet one who takes every advantage of those he meets, and holds the road for his own selfish self, often to the great discomfort of those he meets, or will not allow them to pass, we are almost sure to think of pork in connection with such drivers of teams. We have some of this type in Fulton county.

In advertising always say what you believe, if you wish people to believe what you say.

"Bill Head" sounds good to us—an order to print a thousand or two, but not when we're speaking of the Governorship of Kentucky.

Hickman is just the right size town to settle down in and enjoy life. Everything for the comfort of life can be brought here and $10 will go as far as $25 will in the large cities. When you want to leave the farm, come to our town and build a nice comfortable home and be among the best people in the world.

The farmer who owns a farm is the particular person who is fixed. Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike, merchants fail and town burn, times may be panicky and even crops may be short—but the farmer who owns his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet, with plenty to eat, drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth. Yet there are lots of them who do not appreciate their situation.

Next to the wife beater comes the horse beater, and it is to be regretted we have one or two in this good community. A horse is the most noble and faithful of beasts and the man who would abuse his horse has something lacking in his manhood.

Eleven years ago the Democratic party in Kentucky worshipped Bill Goebel, and now it is dominated and damned by John Whitten, who was one of those who most rejoiced at Goebel's foul taking-off. Who is a Democrat in Kentucky, anyhow?

A man never realizes the superiority of woman so much as when he is sewing on a button without a thimble, pushing the needle against the wall, getting it half way through and pulling it through the other half by hanging on to it with the teeth.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

Millers must stop bleaching flour, pending adjudication by the higher courts or stout criminal prosecution for each shipment made in interstate commerce, according to a decision reached in Washington at a conference between officials of the Departments of Agriculture and Justice.

It is said that a goose drinks water one hundred times a day—but we've some in Hickman "who" don't drink water at all.

The road to success is paved with good advertisements. Come in—the water's fine.

Old Citizen Gone.

Cato Davis, one of the oldest citizens of the county, died at his home at Woodland Mills, on Monday evening, Aug. 15, 1910, of general decline. Mr. Davis was nearly 83 years of age.

Mr. Davis was born in Virginia and inherited the traditions of the Virginian. He came to Clarksville, Tenn., in 1847, leaving with a company of 36 forty-niners for California. There he remained for seven years, returning to Tennessee and locating at Woodland Mills in 1856. In 1857 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Lawson, sister of Judge A. J. Lawson, of Union City. Eleven children were born and ten reared to maturity. Of these six survive with the widowed mother as follows: 1. H. Davis, of Nashville; W. P. Davis, Union City; Cato Davis, Woodland Mills; Mrs. R. D. Jenkins, Ripley, Tenn.; Ripley Davis, Garland, Texas; John C. Davis, Roswell, N. M.

Services were held at the home in Woodland Mills and the remains interred at Salem. Rev. Newbill was in charge of the services.

Now-a-days when people want anything they look in the newspapers to get it. If they want the services of a painter, a carpenter, a plasterer, a plumber, or any other mechanic or tradesman, they expect to find a card in the paper. They look for it. If they find one the advertiser gets a job. Judicious advertising pays.

WILL DENY EVERYTHING

THAT IS THE PRESENT PLAN OF CRIPPEN DEFENSE.

Finding of Some Human Body is All the Evidence Prosecution Has.

London, Aug. 23.—From Solicitor Arthur Newton, attorney for Dr. H. H. Crippen, who is now en route from Quebec to London, was obtained the first outline of Crippen's defense. Emotional appeals to the jury, such as figure in American courts, Newton declared, will not be made. From his standpoint, the case appears substantially as follows:

Fragments of a human body were dug up in the cellar of the house of Dr. Crippen. The police say the bricks under which these fragments were found had recently been disturbed, but expert evidence will be forthcoming that it is impossible for anyone to determine this point, assuming that the bricks had been untouched for as long as a month.

Dr. Pepper, the government analyst, has stated that he has identified the remains as those of a woman, but Dr. Marshall, who conducted the post-mortem, testified before the coroner that he could not swear as to the question of sex, and it is doubtful if Dr. Pepper's belief can be substantiated under cross-examination.

The police expect to make much of the fact that Crippen is known to have pawned jewelry belonging to his wife after her disappearance, but the defense, Newton says, will show that he was for years constantly pawning and redeeming this jewelry.

As to the significance of Crippen's flight with Miss Leveson, his typist, the defense will point out that it was perfectly natural for the doctor, in view of his wife's admittedly mysterious disappearance, to feel that he was under suspicion, and that it was by no means surprising for him to shrink from a police inquiry.

The consensus of legal opinion here is that unless the police have a far stronger chain of evidence than has been indicated the court will actually order the release of Crippen.

SPAIN'S NEIGHBOR PREPARES FOR WAR

RADICALS, CLERICALS AND GOVERNMENT FORM TRINITY OF DISSENSION.

SITUATION IN PORTUGAL

Cabinet Premier Issues Secret Orders to Minister of War to Guard Against Civil Conflict—Troops Are Disaffected.

Lisbon, via Frontier, Aug. 23.—Secret orders were issued to Mathias Nunez, minister of war, by Senor Barao, the premier, after a conference with King Manuel. It was reported semi-officially the orders related to the suppression of the present unrest, and preparations to put down any uprising by the clericals or by the republicans. With both sides armed, the situation in Portugal is as serious as it has been in the Spanish crisis, and bloodshed is feared.

A report was circulated that the ministry had decided to introduce into parliament radical electoral reforms, which have been expected since the cabinet, composed of progressives, was formed last December.

The outlook for the general elections to be held Sunday is not reassuring in view of the government's secrecy, and measures to preserve order. It is believed the rumored plans for a clerical uprising will come to a head then.

Three-Cornered Fight Is Expected.

A three-cornered fight would inevitably follow any attempt on the part of the clericals to overthrow the movement and establish a republic. The extreme radicals would fight bitterly in opposition to clerical domination.

The gravest danger lies in the disaffection of a large part of the troops. It has been asserted many regiments were affiliated in sympathy with the radicals, the republicans being particularly strong among these officers. This factor is regarded in the semi-official world as an offset to any advantage the clericals may have obtained.

The continuance of the dispute with the Vatican remains a source of great anxiety, inflaming the Catholics against the king and the cabinet.

1910 Tax Rates.

The tax rate is slightly higher this year than last, the result of two things. First, The county rate is a little in excess on account of the road tax, but the money is well spent. Second, For State purposes, the State Board raised our rate 3 per cent. Many other counties get a rate of 10 to 15 per cent. Here are your tax rates:

State, 10c on the $100
County, 10c on the $100
Poll Tax, $1.00
Hickman School District, 4c on the $100
Hickman School District, $1.00 poll
Hickman School Tax, 10c on the $100
Leaves tax, 50c on the $100

The tax books are now in Richard Johnson's hands, and early payment of same is requested by him. See his notice elsewhere in this paper.

Buried by Negroes.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal of Monday says:

Without the presence of tender loving hands to smooth the brow of death, and without so much of ceremony as "from dust to dust and ashes," but the hands of necessary negroes who have the contract for the burial of the dead from the local United States Marine Hospital, the body of W. H. West, a seaman on a Mississippi river packet, whose home is in Kentucky, had been hauled from the hospital and lowered to its last earthly resting place in Forest Hill Cemetery.

The request and the last sad rites of the dead were absent from this funeral of funeral it may be called. It was rather a scene in which a white man, with the dark plumes of death nodding over his body, was taken to a lonely spot in the cemetery and there dumped into an unknown grave by negroes. As the clouds of the valley rattled upon his plain coffin no feeling of loneliness stole into the heart of any bystanders, and when the heap of earth was rounded over his body, no tear was dropped upon the new made grave.

The undertakers who have the contract with the Marine Hospital are McCoy & Joyner, negroes. They were awarded it last year, in competition with other undertaking establishments of the city who had bid for the contract.

This is the first case that is known in Memphis where a white man has been buried by negro undertakers, and the few who knew of this instance and are reminded of the contract which has been placed in the hands of negroes resent the idea of handling the bodies of white people.

The authorities at the hospital say that it is a government matter, and that they are instructed to place the contract with the lowest bidder, regardless of color.

West's relatives live at Hickman, Ky., and did not know of his dangerous condition until the crisis had passed and he was dead.

West was taken to the hospital several weeks ago, and placed under treatment for stomach trouble, but two days before his death symptoms of an abscess in the skull cavity developed, and the authorities stated yesterday that it was their intention to operate as soon as he was able to stand it, but that he grew worse so swiftly that he died within two days after the abscess was discovered.

News of his death was communicated to his sister, whose address had been given by West at R. F. D. No. 1, Hickman, Ky. They have not heard from her in response to their announcement.

FAMOUS ELM TREE IS GONE

Was Branch of Famous Elm Under Which Penn Made Treaty With Indians—Planted in 1812.

Philadelphia.—An interested crowd the other afternoon watched the destruction of one of Philadelphia's old landmarks on Twelfth street above Chestnut, the gigantic elm tree which has for years shaded the yard of the Friends' meeting house, and which has a pedigree second to none in Philadelphia. The old elm was a branch of the famous Penn treaty elm in Kensington, under which William Penn made his treaty with the Indians.

Two other large trees which have been grown from the Penn treaty elm are at the Pennsylvania hospital and Swarthmore college. The old tree on Twelfth street was planted in 1812, when the surrounding neighborhood bore a truly rural aspect. It was for many years remarkable for its magnificent foliage, but since the erection of the adjacent high buildings it ceased to thrive, and recently showed marks of decay.

A short time ago a heavy branch fell to the street, making a large hole in the sidewalk, and it was deemed necessary for the safety of pedestrians to remove entirely the old landmark.

A special from Burlington, Iowa, says: The Mississippi river stage is one-half inch below the low water mark of 1864 and is now at the lowest point ever known. For the first time in the history of up-river steamboating, regular through packets are unable to get above Fort Madison.

FOR SALE: One Phaelon, one 2-seated trap with top, pole and shafts.—Dr. J. M. Hubbard. 20p

John McLean, commenting, in the Murray Gazette, on the appointment of Mott Ayers as employment agent for the State, says: "Mott Ayers, of Fulton, Frankfort or Louisville—they all look alike to him—has been appointed state employment agent, an office created especially for Mott. It pays the niggardly sum of $2,000 a year. The duties of employment agent take some of the heavy work off the burdened shoulders of the prison commissioners, who labor about ten hours a month. By thus dividing the duties this will give the commission six hours a month and four hours for the employment agent. Such doings as this are responsible for the scarcity of woodcocks in Kentucky. We call the attention of our game warden to the wanton destruction of this rare fowl."

The Cotton Blossom Floating Theatre played their second engagement for the year in Hickman Tuesday night. They were greeted with a packed house, and gave one of the best performances that has been witnessed here for some time. "The Tide of Life" is an interesting drama.

OIL FOUND IN ILLINOIS

Drillers Make Rich Strike at Two Thousand Feet Deep Nine Miles From Greenville.

Greenville, Ill., Aug. 23.—The Producers' Oil company drilled into oil sand at the Brown's Mill well, nine miles west of Greenville, with remarkable success, as shown by the volume of oil brought to the surface. Sample of the oil, struck at 2,000 feet, were brought to Greenville and show a superior grade. The rope on the derrick shows the hole had filled up to a depth of 135 feet at the time the derrick was drawn from the hole. The pressure indicates a strong flow.

Illinois Lad Wading Drowns. Princeton, Ind., Aug. 23.—Milton G. Krebs, 20, son of L. W. Krebs of Mount Carmel, Ill., was drowned while wading in White river at Kelly's ripple. The boy was a member of the Bob White club, camping here.

Earthquakes in New England. Lowell, Mass., Aug. 23.—Earth tremors accompanied by heavy rumblings, caused considerable alarm in this city and surrounding towns. The shocks lasted several seconds but did no damage.

A PETULANT QUERY

Although I said I'd swear no more As I had sworn in days of yore— To spur me on to words profane, I did not make myself ashamed By even saying: "I'm dad-blamed!" And yet—and yet no one on earth Spoke of my newer moral worth.

Although I banned the fat cigar That hitherto my nerves would mar, And said no more should I be seen A cringing slave to nicotine, Nobody took me by the hand And called my conduct great and grand, Nobody came and praised my grit— Nobody ever noticed it.

But, listen! Here is what I did: 'Twas yesterday that I backslid Pale wine—cigare—I tried them both— And once I breathed a barmitze oath— And instantly the word had gone Among my friends, and still flies on Although I shunned the tempting cup And vowed I would not drink it up.

Of the new leaf which I had turned— Although I pledged no more in wine But said: "The spring's wild brew for mine." Nobody ever cheered my name. The world went rolling on the same, No one on earth seemed to have learned That I once more in darkness groped And that for me there is no hope— Why?

WILLBUR D. NESBIT.

GRAND STAND COLLAPSES

Sight of Disaster Causes Balloonist to Fall to His Death at North Bergen, New Jersey.

New York, Aug. 23.—Fully 100 men, women and children were injured, three seriously and one perhaps fatally, when a grand stand upon which 500 persons were gathered collapsed at Scheutzen Park, North Bergen, N. J., where the Mattheusfest Volksfest of New York is holding an athletic meeting.

A few minutes later a balloonist, who had ascended just as the stand collapsed and who evidently became unnerved as the cries of distress arose, lost his grip when his parachute struck the roof of a house and fell 40 feet to the ground, suffering injuries which will result in his death.

ENGRAVES HEAD OF A PIN

Alphabet Four Times, Name and Date All Crowded on Tiny Surface.

Sharon, Pa., Aug. 23.—On the head of an ordinary pin Paul P. Weitz of this city has engraved the alphabet four times and then added his name and the date, making 123 characters in all.

For the wonderful piece of work that he did he used an ordinary watch-maker's tool.

Weitz is only 22 years old.

J. H. Travis, of the Mangel Box Co., was called to Trenton, Tenn., to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Calie H. Davidson, last week. T. Travis, Fulton—and three sisters—Mrs. Ellen Gilchrist, and Mrs. Minnie Davis, of Nashville; Mrs. Bessie White, of St. Louis. Lack of space forbids further particulars. Mr. Travis has the sympathy of his many Hickman friends.

Secure an Education.

The State Normal School at Bowling Green, Ky., offers an excellent opportunity to young people desiring an education. The Fall Session opens September 6, 1910. Write for information.

No Sept. Jury.

On the third Monday of next month circuit court will convene in Hickman. For the first time in many years, the court will have not petit or grand jury to open the judicial hall, and the "householder" need have no fear of sheriffs catching him unawares between now and that date and serving a summons for jury service.

Under ordinary circumstances, the jury list is placed in the hands of the sheriff 20 days before court convenes—and was to us who are summoned and fail to appear. But when court opens next time the usual congregation of prospective jurors, pleading for dismissal from the panel, will not be on hand.

Why this state of affairs? Because during the May term of court, the five keys to the jury wheel were lost by Special Judge Feland, at Fulton, and a list of jurors could not be drawn for the next term, according to law. It might be a small task to break into the wheel but no local officer has the authority to do so. The only thing that can be done now is to wait until court convenes and opens the box or wheel in "open court," and this authority is vested only in the presiding judge. Sheriff Johnson and his deputies will then get busy. If you are a legal voter and householder of the county, don't be alarmed if you are called to the door in your pajamas at midnight to hear the officer read a jury summons the third week in September.

Courier's Home Circle

Self Taxation.

People in general seem to enjoy growling about the taxes. This subject makes a theme for conversation in the family. It inspires the lonnger. In the corner grocery, and it puts life into many a political campaign. Why, our forefathers actually plunged into rebellion, fought seven years and finally won our national independence from Great Britain on a question of taxes. If you want to see a "hot" town meeting in a back-country town-ship, just propose an extra tax for some new road and a bridge.

And yet there is one sort of tax that is not grumbled at. That is to say, the taxpayers rarely denounce it or dispute. They keep on paying it serenely all their lives unless they happen to tumble into the poor house. Their friends and relatives often scold about it, but they, while they feel its pressure, go right on paying out. Even the poor men keep these payments up when all others are cut off.

We refer to the tax which men pay to passion and appetite. The sums thus expended every year—say for tobacco and liquors only—are stupendous. This sort of tax paying begins early in life, when the youngster gets into the habit of treating himself to cider, beer, ale, porter, whisky, a cigarette, or a cigar. After a bit he "can't get along without it," and so he binds himself to pay taxes to it all his life. He growls about his road tax when he grows up, his school tax and his church tax, but his self-indulgence tax he passes out without a murmur even though it may have made him a poor man. Sometimes he is conscious of it, but he has become a slave to his habits and cannot free himself. The socialists do a great deal of growling about the burdens put by capital upon the poor. The worst burden poverty has to bear is the tax which it voluntarily pays to appetite and passion.

Heads of Households.

It is the mothers who are the heads of the households. The culinary department of your household is in your domain. You decide all questions of diet. All the sanitary regulations of your house are under your supervision. To regulate the food, and the apparel, and the habits and decide the thousand questions of home life is a tax upon your brain and nerve and general health absolutely appalling if there be no divine alleviation. It does not help you much to be told that Elizabeth Fry did wonderful things mid the criminals of Newgate. It does not help you much to be told that Mrs. Judson was very brave among the Mohammedan cannibals. It does not help you much to be told that Florence Nightingale was very kind to the wounded in Crimea. It would be better for us to tell you that the divine friends of Martha and Mary is your friend, and that he sees all the annoyances and disappointments of an ordinary housekeeper from morn till night and from the first day of the year to the last day of the year and at your call he is ready with help and reinforcement.

Boys Don't.

Don't cultivate a taste for liquor or tobacco. They do you no good. They are expensive, and until your tastes and stomach are perverted they rebel against them.

Don't go out of the hall between acts. It looks bad. If you wish to let people know that you are there, you have the manager announce it. It's better taste.

Don't forget that you are to run this great country some day—fill all the public offices, make all the laws, decide all judicial questions, manage all the business enterprises, and in a word, own and control this great world.

Don't let your temper take the bits between its teeth and imperil what little remains of self-control. Bear constantly in mind the Biblical injunction, that he who ruleth his own temper is greater than he who taketh a city—or words to that effect.

Don't spend your entire income in fine clothes. Good manners, good sense and good habits will bind your friends closer to you, make you think more of yourself, be respected more by others, and better received into society than any amount of fine clothes will that you can buy.

Don't consider it manly to be around with bowie knife and revolver; to carry a pipe and to swear. Keep well in mind that this is not what constitutes a man. No, boys, this never gain for you the place that a true man may occupy. Not even the wearing of a big moustache makes the man. Uprightness in dealings and honorable convictions are what we admire in a man and what constitutes manliness.

Practical Fashions

LADIES' DRESSING SACK.

Paris Pattern No. 3023 All Seams Allowed.—The easy, comfortable lines of this pretty dressing sack at once commend it for practical use. The pattern is in 4 sizes, 36 to 44 inches bust measure. For 36-inch bust the sack will require 3 1/2 yards of material 24 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards 36 inches wide and 2 yards 42 inches wide, with 2 1/2 yards ribbon.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills have done Great Service for People who Work in Hickman.

Most Hickman people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious house work, lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Cures effected in this locality form the strongest proof of their efficiency. Read this testimony.

J. F. Eddleman, barber, Pleasant Port, Ky., says: "Anyone who follows my occupation requires a strong back, for the long hours spent at the chair, bring a steady strain on the muscles of the loins. I was in pretty bad shape and could not work with any degree of comfort. # THE ELECTRICAL WORLD

ELECTRICAL NOTES.

A steam turbine electrical locomotive is being tried in England.

Venezuela has nearly 5,000 miles of telegraph lines with nearly 200 offices. A new electric water heater heats its contents in 15 seconds and boils it in 45.

A searchlight with power estimated to equal 15,000,000 candles has been turned out in Germany.

More than 20,000 20-candle power incandescent lamp filaments can be made from a single pound of tantalum.

Invisible to the naked eye, electric wireless waves leaving a station have been caught and pictured by the camera.

Because of the scarcity of coal, gas is not used for illumination in Spain, and the only city using electricity is Bangkok.

Electricity has supplanted gas for car lighting in nearly all the state railways of Italy, Switzerland and Denmark.

A wireless station at Cape Cod, Mass., recently picked up messages from Colon to naval vessels in Nicaraguan waters.

The electrification of the street railways of Rio Janeiro, as a development of the hydro-electric power system of that city is progressing rapidly.

Electromagnets in use in English hospitals to remove metal particles from patients' eyes can be made to exert a pull of 30 pounds to the square inch.

Petrol driven street cars, seating 45 passengers and capable of a speed of ten miles an hour are supplanting horse carts in Karachi, India, without necessitating the expense of changing the system into an electric line.

APPARATUS TO SEE BY WIRE

German Scientist Details Use of Selenium by Which "Points" Are Transmitted.

Dr. Ernest Ruhmer, aged 31, a German scientist, has perfected an apparatus whereby a person may see by wire things that are happening miles away. In describing his work the doctor said:

"The human eye, or what one sees of it from the outside, consists, really, of an infinite number of little points which are the tips of spines. There are 3,000,000 of them. On a picture, or a reproduction of one, there are also similar points, called in German 'rester.' Compare the silver points or particles on a photograph. On the picture seen by the eye there will be 3,000,000 of such 'rester,' one for every point in the eye. Color is produced by the subdivision of each point into three—red, green and yellow.

"The whole problem of seeing by wire consists in transmitting accurately and fast enough the relations of light and darkness of these points. Some points will be dark, some light. Selenium points will be dark, some light. Selenium is susceptible to light and darkness and transmits that susceptibility to the electric rays."

At the receiving end of the wire there is an apparatus for reproducing the original effects of light and shade at the sending end.

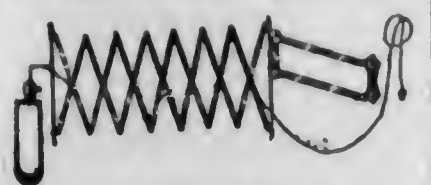

Dr. Ruhmer is largely employed in constructing his special selenium cells for export to America. Large cases of them go by nearly every steamer.

Among the oddest problems ever set him to solve was that presented by an American coffee merchant, who instructed the young inventor to make for him an instrument with a selenium cell which would not only register the different colors of coffee berries passed over a band in front of it, but could also be made to correctly sort the beans. This problem has been solved and the instrument, though expensive, actually sorts the beans according to color.

tists and draftsmen, says Popular Mechanics. The bracket is made of steel, is rigidly put together, has a horizontal radius of 5 feet in any direction, and is adjustable vertically anywhere within 8 inches above or below the mounting. The electric light socket is also adjustable on its fastening and the reflector can be set at any angle.

D. B. Wilson, one of the big planters of this section, brought in an open boll of cotton yesterday, the first we've seen for the present year. Indications are that it was open about the 20th. It was grown on his bottom farm.

WOMAN FOR RECORDERSHIP

Republicans in Wright County, Iowa, Nominates Mrs. C. V. Anderson for Important Post.

Clarion, Ia. — Mrs. Carrie Vaughn Anderson was nominated by the Republicans of Wright county, Iowa, at the primary election held recently to the office of county recorder by a large plurality. Upon being interviewed as to her opinion of women in politics, she had the following to say: "I don't think every woman ought to vote any more than every man—Intelligence should be the qualification and not sex. The world will never be made any better if the ignorant, immoral woman is allowed to vote and conditions will continue the same. Women should be allowed to hold any office of trust that a man does, provided she is qualified for the position and gets the votes."

Mrs. Anderson is an advocate of the great farmers' co-operative movement, which is sweeping the country, especially in the great grain states. The state of Iowa alone having 325 farmers' co-operative companies, which buy and sell grain, stock and lumber. In the state alone more than $50,000,000 worth of business was done last year.

As far as is known Mrs. Anderson is the only woman doing lecture work for this organization, and being a farm woman, is heartily in sympathy with the movement. Mrs. Anderson delivers addresses at Fourth of July, Decoration day and all such gatherings. She is a member of the editorial staff of the American Co-Operative Journal, one of the greatest organizations of the co-operative movement published in this country.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Topeka, Kan., August 25, 1879, but moved to Iowa at an early age, where she has since resided. She is a graduate of the Eagle Grove high school and a rural teacher. She was married while quite young to a farmer, who died some four years ago, leaving her with four children, three boys and a girl, Donald, Carlisle, Max and Averil, the oldest ten and the youngest five years old. She farmed for a time after her husband's death, but the hired man problem and the "wet" years compelled her to abandon this.

Mrs. Anderson made practically a "house-to-house" campaign and drove heavy wagons and automobiles and attended township school picnic in her work. She was treated courteously by the men.

Some were under the impression the campaign was conducted for the purpose of securing a husband, but she thinks it was rather an expensive way to find a husband, and knows of no man who is worth hiring an automobile at the rate of $10 per day to pursue. She is out for office because of the fact that wages paid women teachers and other lines of work is not adequate to support a family.

Mrs. Anderson expects to go on in political work and if not able to vote will try for the highest offices that women may acquire, at least will continue to talk and persuade men to vote for the right, a silent influence woman can and is already wielding.

HARROW YOUR WHEAT.

The Benefit to Be Derived Is Worth the Effort.

The custom of harrowing winter wheat and rye when they have been put in with a drill, as they should be, is becoming more and more prevalent every year. Many farmers are deterred from harrowing, partly because it is an innovation, a departure from their previous methods, and the conservatism of the farmer usually keeps him from adopting any method unless he is shown pretty clearly why it is a good one. Others are deterred because they think that harrowing will probably injure the wheat. Not having been accustomed to cultivate wheat, they are loath to do so. The object of this article is to show why farmers should harrow their wheat.

In many sections of the wheat country the crop is measured largely by the amount of available moisture. If the frost goes out and the spring rains come a crust is formed on top of the wheat fields. This crust gives the most favorable conditions for the evaporation of moisture. It is brought up by capillary action from far down in the soil, passes out without hindrance, and the result is that the wheat begins to show signs of drought, often at the critical time when it is finishing up its work. Harrowing breaks up this crust; prevents the evaporation of moisture; stores it up, so to speak, for use when the wheat is heading out and forming its seed.

Furthermore, this crust covering the soil excludes the air. Wheat roots must have air as well as the leaves, although not so great an amount. This harrowing aerates the soil and gives much more thrifty growth than it would otherwise attain. Wheat needs harrowing in the spring of the year just as much as corn needs cultivating when a crust has formed over the field after a heavy rain.

The third reason for harrowing wheat is to secure the proper depth of covering for your grass seed when sown on the wheat stubble, says Wallace's Farmer. If grass seeds are sown upon this hard crust, a portion of them will probably roll into the cracks and germinate, but on account of lack of aeration of the soil they will have a spindling growth. A large portion of them will lie on the surface of the ground or be insufficiently covered. Hence the way that will go farthest to insure a stand of clover seed is to give it covering by sowing it just before you harrow your wheat.

Don't be afraid of pulling out your wheat by harrowing if you harrow when the ground is in the right condition. We have harrowed wheat pretty severely the last few years, but have never injured it. An occasional stalk will be pulled out, but the rest will be cultivated and the final result is a thickening of the stand. One of the strongest arguments for drilling wheat is that drilled wheat can be harrowed with the minimum of danger and the maximum of profit.

Tom Dillon, Jr. Dead.

The citizens of Hickman and vicinity were shocked yesterday morning when word went out from the home of Mrs. M. A. Ramago that Thomas Dillon, Jr., had dropped dead.

Mr. Dillon had been confined to his bed for the past two weeks, suffering with a form of kidney trouble, but his condition was not thought serious—in fact, he had said an hour before his death that he was feeling much better. About 11 o'clock, without the slightest warning he fell, seized with acute pain. Dr. H. E. Prather, the attending physician, was hastily summoned and reached his bedside only in time to see him breathe his last. Death is thought to have been due to the rupture of a blood vessel or heart failure actuated by the trouble from which he was suffering.

No death in this community has caused more universal sorrow. Mr. Dillon stood high in the estimation of his fellowman, and his every act merited this esteem. In both public and private life, he was always the same—a brave, tender-hearted man, whose sympathies were ever in harmony with those about him.

For many years he served the City of Hickman as Marshal and made a splendid officer. His re-election to this place so many times—since 1897—is the best evidence of his efficiency and confidence of our citizens. He was fair and impartial in the discharge of every duty.

Mr. Dillon was born in King's County, Ireland, March 2, 1849. He came to Hickman when a mere boy, in 1854, and has resided here continuously. He was married to Miss Lou Steele, who died a few years later. To this union was born one boy, John Dillon, who died Nov. 27, 1908. Later he was married to Miss Marion Goulder, who has been dead about 12 years.

He was one of the leading members of the I. O. O. F., and early in life united with the Catholic church, which never had a more honorable member.

He is survived by Mrs. M. A. Ramago and Mayor Tom Dillon, cousins, his nearest relatives.

Burial will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the City Cemetery. Funeral services will be conducted by the Odd Fellows at the residence of Mrs. Ramago.

Mr. Dillon was numbered among the Courier's very best friends. We loved him because he was a manly man. He will be missed as a friend, a citizen, a neighbor. Death has conquered; he has gone the way that all of earth must go—but beyond the River we shall hope to meet again.

No Hope for Recovery.

As we go to press we are informed that attending physicians entertain little hope for the recovery of Roland Amberg, who lies at the point of death with typhoid fever. In the past few hours strong symptoms of peritonitis have developed.

He was only kept alive Tuesday by artificial respiration, and in his present weakened condition, the additional trouble is thought to be more than he can survive.

Fair Warning.

To all persons indebted to us on past due accounts and notes, take notice we will ask for judgment unless promptly attended to without further notice.

Mules Wanted.

I will be in Hickman, Tuesday Aug. 30th, to buy small mules 1 1/2 hands and less, 4 to 9 years old.—George G. Clark, Mayfield, Ky.

Special Revenue Agent F. L. Floyd, who has been here some time checking up county officers, checked up the books kept by J. T. Seat as sheriff, and found discrepancies of only $13.85. When the amount of money handled by the sheriff is taken into consideration this is an excellent record and one which Mr. Floyd says has been unequalled. These discrepancies in most cases occur when fees are not charged by the officer and not reported to the State through a misunderstanding of the law.

KILLING AT SAMBURG.

Shooting affray, which occurred at Samburg, on Reelfoot lake, Saturday afternoon, one man lost his life, one woman was seriously wounded and a man is suffering from an accidental shot in the stomach.

The trouble originated over a quarrel between Martin Leonard's wife and the daughter of a man named Keesucker, the men taking up the quarrel

From the best information obtainable it seems that while Martin Leonard was advancing on the daughter of Keesucker with a knife the latter opened fire, killing Leonard instantly and accidentally shooting his brother in the stomach and a woman named Pitts in the breast. Both are seriously through not dangerously wounded. Keesucker surrendered and is in jail at Fulton City. While the feeling at Samburg is rather intense no further trouble is anticipated.

They have been on the place and worked for Isaac Shuff since March 3, 1873, and Mr. Shuff says if there ever were two honest, honorable negroes on earth, it is this aged couple of the old Southern regime. It is like parting with some of the family, and there is a touch of pathos in their farewell. In the early days Uncle John belong to the Dodds family. He is one of those negroes faithful to duty; in serving, he learned to love "his white folks;" his reward has been ample. Victor Hugo has described the lives of such as him in the character of "Gilles." His departure will snap another of the few remaining threads which connect today and yesterday, and ere long his kind will be no more.

Mrs. C. S. Patterson has ordered and preserved 10 gallons of fruit this season. Who can beat it?

HOME FOR BANK.

C. P. Shumate, promoter of the Peoples Bank, has perfected arrangements to locate the new bank in the W. A. Dodds building, occupied by the Hickman Plumbing & Tinning Co. The latter firm will move temporarily into the Harry building and later on a new building which will be built for them by A. T. Carothers, owner of the ice factory. The capital stock of the new bank, we understand, has all been subscribed and they expect to get ready for business in a very short time.

LAND FOR SALE.

I have 10,000 acres of Fulton Co. land listed for sale, mostly bottom land, above and below Hickman. Also some West Hickman property, and a few hill farms and houses and lots—liberal terms. Now is the time to buy land. Values are lower in Fulton County than anywhere else. Will surely increase 25 per cent in the next twelve months. Call and let us show you what we have.

B. G. HALE.

Mrs. W. H. Heath, of the La Plume Hotel is home from Marble Hill, Mo., where she spent several days with her husband. Mr. Heath's health is much improved.

Special Offer

We expect to put out a greater number of farm wagons around close to home this year than ever before, and in order to do this we are making the special prices below:

2 1/2	Thimble Skein Wagon, with bed, at	$50.00
3x8	" " "	52.00
3 1/2	" " "	55.00

Can furnish any height wheel preferred, the regular height, 42x52 inch, or the low 40x44 inch or special 37x46 inch. In the low wheel we specially recommend the 40x44 height, as they are well proportioned, very strong and durable.

Upon investigation you will find these prices from $8 to $12 under most all other makes, and at the same time we propose to give you a first-class light running wagon, made of bone-dry material throughout.

WE GUARANTEE EVERY WAGON right along side any other make for strength, light running, etc. Remember that while we are making extremely low prices, we propose to give you just as good a wagon as the other fellow is now charging you at least ten dollars more for.

Mr. S. L. Dodds, the proprietor, having his own timber and mills, is in position to build wagons for much less than those who are compelled to go on the open market for their supply of material. Being a large planter, Mr. Dodds uses a great number of wagons, and is in position to know just what style wagon suits the farmer best—and is now having wheels made with extra thick tires, deeper felloes, larger hubs and all other parts ironed in proportion.

Our foreman, Mr. Hertweck, and also our business manager, Mr. Baltzer, has been raised up in the wagon business, having been connected with this plant practically all their lives, and both are thoroughly familiar with the important points of wagon manufacture, and are using their every effort to put out a strictly first-class wagon that will best suit the farmer.

As a special inducement we will allow $5.00 for this advertisement when cut from this paper and presented at our office, and accompanied by cash order for wagon during the month of August.

WHY PAY SEVERAL DOLLARS EXTRA FOR JUST A NAME, WHEN YOUR HOME FACTORY WILL FURNISH A WAGON AS GOOD FOR LESS.

Write us direct or come in and see us. We have a good stock of all size wagons on hand and will appreciate your business.

Respectfully,
